Paid Arguments Against

Commission Reform Really SPUR's "Charter for Change"

Billionaires sought "Proposition A" after losing 2024's Board and Commission reform "Proposition D" ballot measure to "Proposition E." Sore losers, they nevertheless managed stacking the resulting "Commission Streamlining Task Force" with Mayor Lurie's staff and SPUR board members.

The Task Force developed an anti-democratic, 166-page Trumpian "Project 2025"-style commission reform Charter Amendment, so onerous it was split into Propositions "A," "D," "E," and "F." The Board of Supervisors placed portions into "Proposition A's" 138-page Charter Amendment by a 9-to-2 vote.

It stipulates often body-unique qualifications to serve on specific boards, commissions become merely "desired," not required. City Supervisors won't be bound to specific qualifications when making appointments, but should take them "into account." Political patronage appointments cronyism will mushroom!

"Prop. A" alters membership qualifications to the "Sunshine Ordinance Task Force" (SOTF) — San Francisco's voter-approved, independent open government transparency watchdog, a regulatory body. A former Supervisor Mandelman campaign staffer and a former Lurie aide seek appointments to the SOTF. Their primary qualifications?: Being former staff.

Read my investigative article (www.westsideobserver.net/sotf) on how Ordinance 99-66 has, and "Prop. A" will, worsen the SOTF's recent shutdown.

"Prop. A" removes the requirement Boards and Commissions prepare annual reports, eliminating transparency for San Franciscans and City Supervisors! There's other buried poison.

It was in Lurie's and Supervisor's interests to abandon this authoritarian, anti-democratic Commission "reform" months ago. Instead, they dug political ditches, fell in, and kept digging. "Prop. A" is like giving matches to pyromaniacs!

Also read my paid arguments against Propositions "D" and "F."

"Prop. A" dismantles wholesale, citizen-involved democracy in San Francisco!

Save your box of matches; maintain our vigilant democracy. Vote "Hell No!" on these four Charter Amendments. They aren't "government streamlining efficiencies." They're SPUR's "Charter for Change"! (https://www.spur.org/publications/policy-brief/2025-11-10/charter-change)
