BRIEF STATEMENT OF PURPOSE ★ ★ ★

This advisory question asks Idahoans to designate which gun they would like to have as the official Idaho State Gun. This is a non-binding measure, and the Legislature would have to take action during a future legislative session to officially designate a gun as the Idaho State Gun.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF EACH FIREARM ★ ★ ★

Winchester Model 1894 • (.30-30)

A lever-action repeating rifle introduced in 1894 and the first rifle to chamber the smokeless powder .30-30 Winchester round. One of the most popular hunting rifles of all time and known for reliability and ease of use in outdoor environments.

Winchester Model 1873 • "Gun that Won the West" • (.44-40)

A lever-action rifle introduced in 1873. It is historically associated with westward expansion and frontier settlement in the United States, earning it the nickname of "The Gun that Won the West."

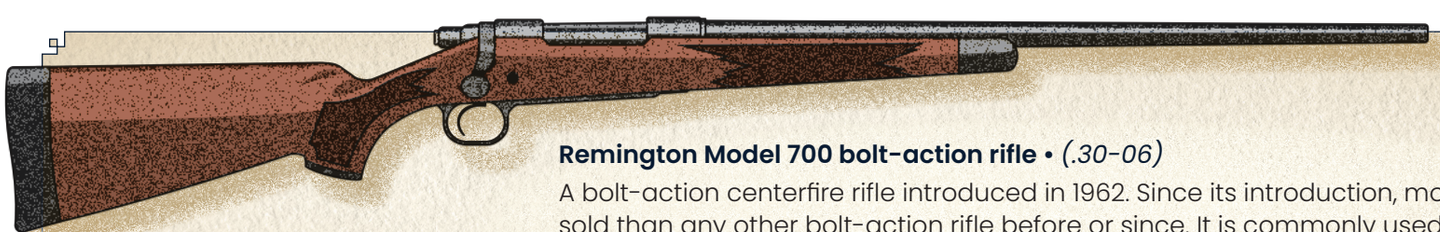

1873 Colt Single Action Army Revolver
"Peacemaker" • (.45 Colt)
A single-action revolver introduced in 1873 which has been offered in over 30 different calibers and various barrel lengths. It was widely used in the late 19th century by law enforcement, military personnel, and civilians alike and has been dubbed the "Peacemaker."

Colt M1911 .45 automatic Colt pistol
(.45 ACP)
A semi-automatic pistol adopted by the U.S. military in 1911, it was used as a standard-issue sidearm for the United States Armed Forces until 1985. It is also commonly used by civilians as both a concealed carry and competitive shooting pistol.

M1 Garand rifle • (.30-06)
A semi-automatic, gas operated, clip fed rifle. The first standard-issue autoloading rifle for the United States, it served as the standard-issue rifle for U.S. forces during World War II and the Korean War.

Remington Model 700 bolt-action rifle • (.30-06)
A bolt-action centerfire rifle introduced in 1962. Since its introduction, more have been sold than any other bolt-action rifle before or since. It is commonly used for hunting and precision shooting and is known for its accuracy, with variants of the rifle used as sniper rifles for both the United States Army and United States Marine Corps.
