Rebuttal to Argument in Favor of Measure L

Sky-high rents, housing, fuel, and food costs, that's what North Monterey County residents are already facing! Now, NMCUSD seeks $40,000,000. Bond toward a long-term project list estimated at almost $200,000,000. This bond is only the beginning.

TRANSPARENCY?

We are still paying for Measures E and H. Before approving more debt, voters deserve a complete, accessible accounting of the $20,000,000 authorized by Measure E and $23,800,000 authorized by Measure H. They deserve to know how maintenance funds were spent and why needed repairs accumulated. District records show more than $120,000 spent on catering during one school year. Is that the best use of limited funds?

THE DISTRICT'S OWN PROJECT LIST STATES:
"Inclusion of a project on the School Facilities Projects List is not a guarantee that any specific project listed herein will be funded, constructed, or completed by a specific date."

BOND DEBT
Bonds are borrowed money repaid by property owners, businesses, and farm owners with interest, for about 30-40 years. Bond proceeds cannot pay teacher salaries, instructional programs, or ordinary operating expenses. Future property owners will continue paying these bonds long after today's children graduate. Adding Measure L bond debt means you pay more.

Older buildings can remain functional, when consistently maintained. Many projects identified in the 2002 and 2013 measures reappear on the current project list. Before requesting additional debt, NMCUSD should explain what was completed, what was not, and why taxpayers should expect different results with millions more owed in bond debt.
