Rebuttal to the Argument Against Measure D
City of Burlingame

Consider the source. The argument against comes from an out-of-town group and their lone signer lives in San Jose. They write similar arguments against many measures without regard for the need or specifics. Their own argument says they advocate for taxpayers in Santa Clara County.

We live in Burlingame. We know Burlingame is in San Mateo County. And we know our community's needs.

Don't be misled. Here are the facts:

- Measure D does not raise taxes on Burlingame residents. It increases the hotel tax paid by visitors by 3 percentage points — from 12% to 15%.
- Visitors use our streets and services, too. It's fair for hotel guests to help maintain the community they visit rather than placing the entire burden on residents.
- Measure D supports Burlingame's highest-priority needs: repairing streets, sidewalks, and potholes; maintaining parks and healthy trees; and strengthening emergency preparedness and public safety. Fixing streets and sidewalks now prevents deterioration and more expensive repairs later.
- Measure D doesn't put Burlingame at a competitive disadvantage. Burlingame's hotel tax hasn't increased since 2009. Our current rate is lower than 11 of the 16 San Mateo County cities with hotels. Even with Measure D, Burlingame's rate will match Half Moon Bay and Pacifica, remain below Menlo Park, and be comparable to neighboring cities.
- Measure D requires local control and accountability. By law, funds stay under Burlingame's control and cannot be taken by the state or federal governments. Independent oversight, annual financial audits, and public reporting are required.

Join trusted Burlingame leaders. Vote YES on D to keep Burlingame safe, strong and well-maintained.
