Rebuttal to Argument in Favor of Measure CC

Don't be fooled. Vote No on Measure CC.

The sole signer of the Argument in Favor asks East Palo Alto voters to restrict our choices at the ballot box. Experience counts and he wants to cancel it.

Council seats don't need to be "reopened." They're already open every election to any citizen who desires to run. Challengers can run, incumbents can lose, and voters will choose new leadership whenever they believe change is needed. This measure removes a choice from voters. Vote No on Measure CC.

The argument claims term limits will bring new voices, competition, and accountability. It guarantees none of these. Term limits do not create candidates, increase voter participation, or guarantee better representation. Vote No on Measure CC.

Comparisons to county, state, and federal offices ignore East Palo Alto's circumstances. It also ignores that 70% of cities in the County have no term limits. Our five-member city council represents East Palo Alto on important regional bodies, where experience and relationships, built up over years, can strengthen our city's voice. Let's not jeopardize that. Vote No on Measure CC.

Accountability comes from elections, not from ill-informed ballot measures like this one. If a councilmember is not serving our community well, vote them out. If voters believe someone is effectively representing East Palo Alto, they should retain the right to reelect them. Vote No on Measure CC.

Don't voluntarily surrender your voting power. Trust yourself and East Palo Alto voters to decide who represents us.

Vote No on Measure CC.
