REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT AGAINST MEASURE P

Don't be fooled by misleading claims. Vote YES! on Measure P to meet our housing goals without sacrificing our downtown.

As long-time Menlo Park residents and civic leaders, we're committed to affordable housing. Together, we can do it right.

Measure P enables a more reliable path to affordable homes.

Council's plan is already failing. We have better options. More than 1,750 additional homes are being planned on major sites near downtown. And talks are underway to convert the 25-acre office park off Marsh Rd. to housing. Let's work with those developers to make more units affordable. It would be less costly, and less damaging, than building from scratch on tiny, congested plazas.

Measure P keeps our downtown accessible.

The parking plazas support our community and the viability of our downtown. Measure P gives you a vote before they're converted into urban-style, 6-8 story high-rises, with insufficient parking for the new residents, and no explanation of who'd pay to replace the current public parking - taxpayers would be on the hook for ~$50M.

Measure P is simple and reasonable.

Measure P doesn't block development on the plazas – it merely requires voter approval. It expressly allows improvements to the "availability, access, or convenience" of parking - without a vote. And it applies only to the plazas – it doesn't hinder downtown improvements that are so badly needed.

Vote YES! on Measure P to ensure our community's voice is heard.

Trust the people of Menlo Park.
