REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT AGAINST MEASURE BB

What does an organization led by a Morgan Hill resident know about Pacifica? Nothing.

When the next natural disaster strikes, will the Silicon Valley Taxpayers' Association come to Pacifica's rescue? NO.

If you want Pacifica to be ready for the next coastal, wildfire, or earthquake emergency, then don't listen to political rhetoric. Vote YES on BB.

Don't be fooled!

If you're worried about coastal erosion and Pacifica's seawall, vote YES on BB so our City has the resources to make it through the next emergency. Every dime of Measure BB STAYS RIGHT HERE IN PACIFICA for the services we all rely on.

If you're angry about City budget cuts resulting from federal and state funding cuts: vote YES on BB. NO money can be taken by the State or the County.

YES on BB maintains 911 emergency medical response times, firefighter and police services.

YES on BB helps repairs streets in the worst condition, maintain storm drains to prevent flooding; and keep parks, beaches and public spaces safe and maintained.

Measure BB requires public spending reports, community oversight and annual independent financial audits to ensure accountability.

Again:
Measure BB isn't a tax on your home or property
Measure BB doesn't apply to groceries or prescription medications.

The choice is clear: allow Pacifica's infrastructure backlog to grow and risk additional cuts to essential services — or protect the City and public safety services that keep our community safe from the next disaster.

Vote YES on BB.
