Rebuttal to Argument in Favor of Measure EE
(San Bruno business license tax)

[Argument starts here]

Start

Stop this huge new tax hike!

Beware: Proponents' claims about making taxes "fair" and "equitable" completely ignore reality:

Businesses don't pay taxes.

Businesses create jobs, goods, services that we need and value. To do so, they have countless expenses and considerations.

Taxes are just one cost of doing business, which owners must pass along, if they are to stay in business. They pass costs along to…

- Customers (higher prices);
- Employees (lower wages); or
- Shareholders (lower returns on investments — our 401(k)s!)

Even small businesses who might be granted a modest license tax reduction would be harmed.

When their larger suppliers are taxed more, the small businesses' costs rise accordingly — thus, the prices they charge us! (Remember: Businesses don't pay taxes.)

Don't trust politicians who neglect essential, core services like 911 emergency response, potholes, and streets, then have the nerve to stoke envy and penalize businesses to cover for their lack of planning.

It's incredible how well businesses' goods, services, and jobs enhance our lives.

But the cost of living here is already *too high. Gas, groceries, rent — nothing seems affordable!

And if Measure EE passes, San Bruno business owners, suffering when burdensome taxation costs push customers away, may relocate to cities who won't penalize them.

Don't tax what you want more of.

Want more goods and services, priced lower, and jobs, at higher salaries?

Vote NO.

Let's not penalize our job and product providers!

Vote NO!
