CITY CLERK'S DEPARTMEI

Rebuttal to Argument in Favor of Measure G

[start of argument]

Reject this meritless sales tax hike!

Proponents' argument is authored by a professional municipal PR consultant and cosigned by a slate of City Hall insiders masquerading as ordinary "residents." But notice: they don't mention one budget figure. They won't talk numbers, because they can't defend them.

As an independent San Carlos resident, I audited City Hall's figures so you don't have to.

As detailed in our "argument against," City Hall wants to tax us up to 12 times its estimated budget deficit, totaling $84M!

Behind their usual theater over "public safety" and "emergency services," City Hall wants a blank-check general tax to fund $200M in capital projects (as stated in their June mailer).

They want to bypass the 2/3 supermajority requirement for a special tax (or bond) because they know they lack voter buy-in. Worse, this deficit stems from councilmembers' bad choices:

- They paid consultants $200,000 to market this tax to us.
- They are spending $7M for Harrington Park "upgrades" — replacing natural kids' play spaces with concrete, and only backing down from a $1M water fountain after public outcry.
- They want to fund an absurdly overpriced $112M bicycle crossing over Highway 101.

Don't be fooled by their spin on "local control" — true local control means keeping $6M/year in our community to protect local businesses, not funding councilmembers' pet projects.

Otherwise, San Carlos families will be stuck paying for their extravagance on every online order, delivery, and vehicle purchase — for 14 years!

Force City Hall to change its spending priorities. Vote NO!

[end of argument]
