REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF MEASURE W

FACT: The real number is $900 million, not $498 million.

- The District's own Tax Rate Statement discloses total principal and interest at approximately $900 million — nearly double what proponents advertise — collected through fiscal year 2054-55, nearly 30 years from now.

FACT: This is the third major bond in about a decade.

- Measure X ($148 million, 2015) and Measure T ($409 million, 2020) already funded roofs, wiring, fire alarms, and safety upgrades. Ask the District what those bonds fixed before handing over $498 million more for the same categories of need.

FACT: The "project list" is a blank check.

- The resolution itself states project budgets are estimates that "may be delayed or may not be completed," and lets the Board substitute demolition for repair at its own discretion. Independent oversight can confirm money was spent on the list — not that your priorities were funded.

FACT: Teacher housing, with no separate budget disclosed.

- Bundled into this facilities bond is authority to "construct, acquire, or contribute to employee housing units" — with no dollar figure broken out for that use alone.

FACT: The District's own polling found support barely above the threshold.

- A 2025 District-commissioned survey found only ~57% support for this exact bond amount — just above the 55% required to pass — yet the Board proceeded unchanged.

Other polling - cost of living is too high, taxes are out of control, and funds are so mismanaged we can't trust the system.
