MEASURE NO. 1

SEEKS TO INCREASE THE PERCENTAGE OF YES VOTES NEEDED TO CHANGE THE CONSTITUTION

- Placed on the ballot by the North Dakota Legislature
- To be voted on in the Nov. 3, 2026, General Election where a majority vote would result in passage

The 2025 North Dakota Legislature passed House Concurrent Resolution 3003 which placed Constitutional Measure No. 1 on the ballot for a vote of the people.

The measure seeks to amend two articles of the North Dakota Constitution (Article III, Section 9; and Article IV, Section 16) related to the percentage of YES votes needed to pass a ballot measure to change the state constitution.

This measure seeks to increase the percentage of YES votes needed to change the state constitution from more than 50 percent to at least 60 percent:

- Current Law – Constitutional measures need "YES" votes that equal greater than 50 percent to change the North Dakota Constitution.
- Proposed Law – Constitutional measures would need "YES" votes that equal at least 60 percent to change the North Dakota Constitution.

NO	Means you want the threshold to make changes to the North Dakota Constitution to remain at greater than 50% of the vote.

HOW CONSTITUTIONAL MEASURE NO. 1 WILL APPEAR ON THE NOVEMBER 3, GENERAL BALLOT

MEASURES BALLOT

Vote by darkening the oval (●) next to the word "YES" or "NO" following the explanation of each measure

Constitutional Measure No. 1 (House Concurrent Resolution No. 3003, 2025 Session Laws, Ch. 614)

This constitutional measure would amend and reenact section 9 of article III and section 16 of article IV of the Constitution of North Dakota. The proposed amendment would require constitutional amendments submitted to the electors, by resolution adopted by the legislative assembly and each initiative petition and measure proposing a constitutional amendment, to receive an affirmative vote of at least sixty percent of those voting on the question for enactment.

The estimated fiscal impact of this measure is none.

○ YES - Means you approve the measure summarized above.

○ NO - Means you reject the measure summarized above.

> WHAT YOUR VOTE MEANS

YES A "YES" vote on Constitutional Measure No. 1 means that future ballot measures to change the North Dakota Constitution would require at least 60 percent of the vote to pass. It increases the current vote threshold of greater than 50 percent to at least 60 percent for changes to the Constitution.

NO A "NO" vote on Constitutional Measure No. 1 means there would be no change and future ballot measures to alter the North Dakota Constitution would remain at greater than 50 percent of the vote to pass.

> FISCAL IMPACT

The estimated fiscal impact of this measure is none.
