Rebuttal to Argument in Favor of Regional Transit Measure

• Don't believe the crisis talk. Our transit systems do NOT face imminent collapse. This is a manufactured emergency was born from years of financial mismanagement, ignored ridership declines, and resistance to improved operational efficiency.

• They Already Have Your Money. Agencies are sitting on $5 billion that could sustain operations while enacting real reforms. Mega-project capital funds, like for High Speed Rail, can be repurposed to cover deficits, without another dime from you. Newsom already approved this approach.

• Handing them a $17B revenue stream removes any incentive to reform, consolidate bureaucracies, control costs, or utilize automation. This measure asks residents – most of whom rarely use transit - to pay more, so transit agencies can change nothing.

• Solutions exist without new taxes: Expenses can be cut through part-time and contract labor, vanpools, and partnerships with AV firms.

• The Real Problem Is Profound Fiscal Mismanagement. Since 2019, regional transit ridership has plummeted 51%, while operating expenses skyrocketed 28%. Grand Juries in three counties have severely criticized agencies' poor financial controls and oversight.

• "Oversight" Provisions Are Meaningless: Real accountability requires independent oversight, measurable efficiency targets, and consequences for failing to control costs - all absent here.

• Your Sales Tax, Their Free Ride: Instead of seeking corporate funding to improve transit, they raise corporate Millions - from PG&E, Meta, Salesforce, Genentech, construction firms, etc. - for this tax campaign, to make residents pay Billions.

• Regressive Transit Sales Tax: Impacts Working Families and Seniors the Most
